

WELCOME ABOARD!

Congratulations on your receipt of orders to Naval Operational Medicine Institute (NOMI) Detachment Naval Expeditionary Medical Training Institute (NEMTI) onboard Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, California. Our mission is to provide instruction on the deployment of fleet hospitals to fleet hospital staff to include; active and reserve, medical department personnel, construction battalion units, and support personnel.

We have among the finest training facilities in the Navy and pride ourselves on having the most professional staff in which to accomplish our mission. Our curriculum includes Fleet Hospital Indoctrination and Orientation, Fleet Hospital Field Training, Operational Readiness Evaluations and several other Fleet Hospital specialized courses for personnel assigned to a fleet hospital.

As you can see, we cover a wide variety of programs which affect virtually all sailors at sometime during their career. Since serving your duty at NEMTI offers many of its own unique challenges, you will have the opportunity to interact on a daily basis with sailors from all designations, thus enhancing your leadership skills through an ever changing variety of personnel.

The uniform of the day at NEMTI is camouflage utilities. These are considered organizational clothing uniforms and will be issued to you upon arrival. A sponsor assigned to you will be sending you a letter under separate cover addressing more specific local issues relating to housing, transportation and school information. Should you need to contact the command before you receive your sponsor's letter please contact our quarterdeck at (866) 873-1841.

Again, welcome aboard! We look forward to your arrival and to welcoming you as a member of our team. You will find your tour here to be informative and rewarding and I am confident that you will enjoy this challenging assignment.

Sincerely,

E. A. Breza
CDR NC USN
